The West End Wedding Show
Oran Mor, Glasgow
Sunday 28th February 2010
12pm till 4pm

The West End Wedding Show in the heart of Glasgow's West End invites you to exhibit at it's sought after Wedding Show on Sunday 28th February 2010 in Oran Mor's Auditorium, Top of Byres Road, Glasgow.

We provide a welcoming, professional atmosphere for you to successfully reach a wide sector of Scotland's wedding market, creating future sales whilst building brand awareness. Our limit per category means you have only one other competitor in your field exhibiting, giving our brides a varied choice whilst ensuring you get bookings. Strong media marketing in National & local publications including adverts in The Scottish Wedding Directory Publication and Website & the Glasgow Subway Trains, teamed with a targeted direct marketing campaign will gain a strong footfall through this event. We offer a personal service to exhibitors, sponsors & guests & are open to businesses of all sizes. Guests receive a complimentary glass of bubbly on arrival along with the latest copy of The Scottish Wedding Directory, then have the opportunity to sit down face to face with the UK's top wedding suppliers & plan their big day in a relaxed atmosphere.

"We got 7 confirmed bookings on the day at The West End Wedding Show, which is more than we got at The Royal Concert Hall Wedding Show"

Alice Roy, Mojo Rising, October 2009

"I was very happy with my position in the hall & that the day was very professionally run, you had a good balance of exhibitors, brides mentioned to me that it was so nice to have a more intimate affair where they had time to speak to us - some of the bigger events are too confusing with too many of the same profession"

Sheila Galvin Photography, October 2009

TERMS and CONDITIONS

1. Organisers: In these regulations the expression `the organisers‘ (SuperNova Event Productions) includes any person or persons or associations appointed by them to act on their behalf.
2. Requirements of the local council: Exhibitors must observe the regulations and requirements of the Local Council and all other competent bodies and authorities in matters connected with the show.
3. Official opening and closing dates: The show will be open to visitors from 12:00pm to 16:00pm on Sunday 28th February 2010.
4. Stand charges: Charges for space are detailed as above.
5. Payment of charges: Charges of space are detailed as above.
6. Sub-letting: Exhibitors will not be allowed to sub-let or divide their stands unless given special written permission
7. Fire insurance and inflammable exhibits: No exhibitor shall do anything to jeopardise the insurance policies or licenses and any drapes of any description must be non-flammable and should be thoroughly tested. You will be asked for proof of this.

8. Fixing to the building: In no circumstances shall any person fix, insert or make fast any wires or tackle of any description to the structures of the hall.

9. Installation of light and power: The contractor appointed by the organisers must carry out the installation of all fittings and connections.

10. Insurance of exhibits: Although every precaution is taken to protect exhibitors and their property during the event, the organisers expressly decline responsibility for any loss or damage, which may befall the person or property of the exhibitor or his/her agent from any cause whatsoever. Exhibitors are reminded that they are responsible for effecting insurance cover in respect of: a. Exhibits and contents of stands, b. Public Liability and Third Party Risk (compulsory), c. Expenses incurred due to abandonment or postponement of the exhibition (compulsory) It is in your own interest to arrange insurance as early as possible.

11. Goods sent in: The organisers are not able to accept deliveries on behalf of exhibitors without prior notice.

12. Passes: The organisers will issue exhibitors passes but exhibitors shall be responsible that the persons nominated only use such tickets, which are not transferable.

13. Cleaning of the show: The organisers will clean all gangways and public areas of the show. It will be responsibility of the exhibitor to clean his/her own stand.

14. Removal of articles: If so required by the organisers, the exhibitor shall remove from his stand or from the exhibition halls, any article or exhibit that, in the opinion of the organisers, contravenes any of these regulations or is dangerous or objectionable or unsuitable to be exhibited on the stand. The organisers, whether or not they shall first have required the exhibitor to remove any such article or exhibit, shall be entitled at their absolute discretion without motive and without incurring any liability to remove such article or exhibit from the stand or from the exhibition halls and shall be under no liability for the safety or custody of such article or exhibit.

15. Obstruction of gangways: Exhibitors must not obstruct gangways or encroach or hinder in any way. The distribution of brochures from the gangways is expressly forbidden.

16. Final removal of goods, etc: All goods and exhibits belonging to any exhibitor and interior fittings are to be removed from the show premises by 18.00pm on 28th February 2010. At that time the organisers shall have the rights and powers conferred on them by Clause 22 as if the license of the Exhibitor has been terminated.

17. Refusal of admission: The organisers reserve the right at their absolute discretion to refuse admission to or remove from the exhibition halls any person without incurring any liability whatsoever.

18. Abandonment of show etc: Should all or any part of exhibition hall not be fully available for the show or should fire, war, strike or other labour trouble, force majeure, or an act of God, or any other occurrence or circumstances whatsoever, whether jusdem generis or not, render it, in the opinion of the organisers advisable to postpone, interrupt or prematurely conclude it in whole or part, or to hold it on a reduced scale, the organisers may terminate the contract at any time on giving the exhibitor notice in writing to that effect, and in such cases the organisers shall be under no liability to the exhibitor nor shall the exhibitor be entitled to a full refund nor monies paid for the stand and shell stand construction, unless the show is cancelled by SuperNova and the full stand payment has been made, SuperNova would then refund the balance paid deducting the non refundable deposit i.e. 50%.

19. Breach of regulations etc: In the event of any exhibitor committing a breach of any of these regulations or failing to observe any requirements of the organisers within the time stipulated by the organisers at their absolute discretion, or if no time is stipulated then forthwith, or if the organisers being of the opinion that this conduct or proposed conduct is or may be undesirable in the interests of the show or that his business is being or may be conducted in such a manner that there is a risk of persons who may do business with him being dissatisfied or of discredit being brought upon the show, the organisers will be entitled by notice to the exhibitor to terminate the exhibitors' license. Powers conferred on the organisers by any other regulations shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, the powers conferred on them by this regulation.

20. Injury by machinery or exhibit to visitors or employees etc: In case of injury or damage being caused by any exhibit, structure or fitting, to any person or persons whosoever, or to any property or any part of the show, the exhibitor by whom or for whose purpose the exhibit, structure or fitting was brought into the show premises, indemnifies the organisers against all actions, expenses, costs, charges or claims arising out of such injury or damage.

21. Termination or cancellation of contract: Exhibitors shall not be entitled to cancel this agreement without the express written permission of the organisers and then only on terms acceptable to the organisers. The organisers may terminate this contract (without prejudice to its other remedies) forthwith by notice in writing to the exhibitor if the exhibitor either:

- a) Commits or fails to observe or perform any provision of this contract or the landlord's regulations.
- b) Is unable to pay its debts or enters into compulsory or voluntary liquidation (except for the purpose of affecting a reconstruction or amalgamation) or compounds with or convenes a meeting of its creditors or has a receiver or manager or administrator over its assets or any part or ceases for any reason to carry on business or suffers any similar action which is in the opinion of the organisers means that the exhibitor may be unable to pay its debts.
- c) Gives to the organiser written notice of its wish to withdraw and the organisers permit it do so. The organisers shall have unfettered discretion whether to permit the exhibitor to withdraw but if they do so permit will require a consideration for release from the contract. The financial terms for an agreed cancellation are as follows and are not negotiable:

Deposits are non-refundable. Cancellations received after 1st February 2010 will not receive refunds. In any of the above cases the termination shall be without prejudice to the rights of the organisers to recover all monies payable by the terms of this contract by the exhibitor and all other claims against the exhibitor and damages sustained by the organiser as well as legal costs incurred in such recovery.

22. Indemnity by exhibitors: The exhibitor indemnifies the organisers against all actions, expenses, costs, charges, or claims which the organisers or any of their contractors may be liable for in consequence or damage or injury to any person or property occasioned by or arising out of the act, default or negligence of the exhibitor, his representatives, servants or workmen or any person or persons or persons under his/her direction or any independent contractor engaged by him.

23. The law governing this agreement etc. The Court's of Scotland shall have jurisdiction concerning any disputes arising from this agreement and the law governing the same shall be that of Scotland

24. Alterations to regulations: The organisers reserve the right on written notice to add or alter these regulations at any time.

25. Alcohol and Catering - All bar / food sales are the responsibility of the venue. No exhibitors will be given permission to sell / give away alcohol or food during the event unless otherwise agreed by the venue and the organisers.
